A CAMP LEEDY.

Wagon Loads of Pies, Cakes, Etc., Were Hauled

Out to the Camp Ground For Sunday Dinner.

MANY WERE FEASTED

But Several Companies Overlooked in the Distribution.

Large Baskets and Boxes of Victuals "From Home."

Yesterday just before dinner the quartermaster sergeants of each company marched over to the commissary department in the Exposition building to receive their share of the good things cooked for the volunteers by the ladies of Topeka. To the soldiers who had been in camp for a week during mud and rain with only the same camp diet day after day, the sight of pies, cakes, cookies, jelly, preserves, doughnuts and other good things was enough to make them homesick. The squads lined up and under the direction of Captain Buchanan the extras for the Sunday dinner were divided between the companies. The soldiers' arms were full as they marched back to their tents and were surrounded by their hungry comrades. Besides the food donated by the ladies of Topeka several of the companies received large boxes and baskets of goodies from their homes. Several towns sent their contributions down by those who came to visit the camp all day. Soldiers could be seen in the tents being fed until they could eat no more.

When a rule is not a rule. Guards Can't Always Recognize the Dignity That Hedges in an Officer.

Captain John C. McGinley of the Emporia company of volunteers stands a little over six feet without his uniform, the absence of which has caused considerable complication in the discipline along the guard lines at Camp Leedy. The company of General McCrum, have delayed the purchase of their uniforms until they get to Leavenworth, consequently those who are without the insignia of office and unaccustomed to the guard have difficulty in passing the lines.

Some of the captains made an effort to purchase shoulder straps in Topeka, but report that they were unable to find any in town, naturally enough. "General" McGinley crossed the line yesterday morning. The sentry stopped him. When McGinley came up within thirty feet of McCrum he turned to the guard and said: "I am the captain of the Emporia company." "How do I know?" queried the guard. "McGinley started to explain, but the guard said: 'You can't cross here. You'll have to go around as long as I'm on this post.' 'Well, just watch me,' said McGinley, and he stalked across the line. He caught a glimpse of General McCrum standing near the Exposition hall and walked towards him. The sentry was following. When McGinley came up within thirty feet of McCrum he turned to the guard and said: 'I'll do that,' said the guard who had not obeyed McGinley's order. McGinley drew himself up, gave the salute and thumped out. "General" McGinley, this guard has placed me under arrest," said McCrum. "He is a commissioned officer." The sentry's gun tumbled to the ground. "Guards must exercise some discretion in these matters. No one will represent himself as an officer who does not have the commission."

DOING BIG BUSINESS. Aunt Dinah, "Lindie," "Tillie," Etc., All Baking Pies for Soldier Boys.

"Pole! Pole! Pole!" Those are words of a chorus which the volunteers sing after lining up along the guard line on the north side of Camp Leedy. Immediately there appears at the back doors of the various houses colored women or young girls who inquire: "Soldiers then lie face downward on the ground, reaching over the line for the pie, extending in the hand which seizes the pie a cent piece. By this sort of gymnastic exercise the privates get the pies and do not violate the rules governing the camp and the sentry does not participate in the transaction, except with his back turned.

ALL THINGS AT ONCE. The "Soldiers" are a Many Sided Crowd Sunday and Other Days.

While Rev. H. D. Fisher was offering a fervent prayer in the big tent at Camp Leedy Sunday forenoon a crowd of soldiers were at the camp. The band was stationed in front of Gen. McCrum's tent and started the concert with a melody of "Marching Through Georgia." "Yankee Doodle," "America" and other patriotic airs. The well known strains of the different tunes brought forth several outbursts of applause. The large crowd of visitors and soldiers packed so closely around the band that they could hardly induce the crowd to let them go when the concert was over.

THE BAND CONCERT. Listened to by All That Could Get Near Enough to Hear It.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Marshall's band gave a concert at Camp Leedy. From 12,000 to 15,000 people were at the camp. The band was stationed in front of Gen. McCrum's tent and started the concert with a melody of "Marching Through Georgia." "Yankee Doodle," "America" and other patriotic airs. The well known strains of the different tunes brought forth several outbursts of applause. The large crowd of visitors and soldiers packed so closely around the band that they could hardly induce the crowd to let them go when the concert was over.

SOME SUNDAY JOSES. Remarks Made by Soldiers of a Humorous Description.

One young man yesterday mounted a large box at the end of a row of tents and commenced crying to the ladies who went by: "There will be a bonnet parade immediately following the band concert. The parade will be held in front of the headquarters tent and every lady wishing to enter can do so. Thank them in behalf of the review for the officers. Come one, come all." Just as he finished another soldier at the other end of the camp announced the largest, most wonderful display of colors ever known. A parade parade will take place in front of the hospital tent at 5 o'clock. Every woman with a pretty parasol invited.

PREACHING AND SINGING. Served to Give Camp Leedy a Sufficiently Sabbatarian Appearance.

Sunday was well observed yesterday at Camp Leedy. The following services took place under the auspices of the Christian Sanitary commission. At 11 a. m. a sermon by Rev. Mr. Galloway in the Exposition hall. Rev. Mr. C. Long delivered a patriotic sermon at 2:30 p. m. at the first regiment; Rev. M. L. Everett at 2:30 at the Second regiment, and Rev. E. L. Thomas at 2:30 in the Exposition hall. Services were held in the evening in the headquarters tent. The Modocs, with Maj. Anderson, furnished the music for Rev. Mr. Long's sermon, and after the sermon they traveled through the camp on a large wagon, singing.

Smith Center Boys' Card of Thanks. Camp Leedy, Topeka, May 8, '98. To the Editor of the State Journal. All members of the Smith Center company wish to express their thanks to Secretary of State Bush, wife and daughter, for an excellent dinner furnished them in camp, Sunday.

Santa Fe to Erect a Twenty Thousand Dollar Building

For a Y. M. C. A. Auditorium at Temple, Texas—Cost $20,000.

SANTA FE IN A ROW

With the Citizens of Colorado Springs Over Street Crossings.

U. P. Retrenchment Causes Force to Work Overtime.

Temple, Texas, May 9.—C. F. W. Felt, chief engineer of the Santa Fe, was in the city today with the plans for the new Young Men's Christian association building. The plans as prepared are for a three story building, convertible into a large auditorium, with the entire lower floor for a gymnasium and bath rooms. It will cost $20,000 in rock or brick or about $13,000 in frame. The nice grounds near the Harvey eating house will be donated by the Santa Fe. The plans will be decided upon at once.

U. P. RETRENCHMENT. Causes Remaining Clerks to Work Over Hours.

Cheyenne, Wyo., May 9.—The retrenchment in the clerical force of the Union Pacific at this place is causing the present force of clerks in the shop and motive power offices to work overtime continuously, some of the clerks working 18 hours per day. Railway officials of the transcontinental line are awaiting with interest the letting of a government transportation contract for transporting 800,000 tons of Pennsylvania anthracite coal which it is to be shipped to the Pacific coast.

SANTA FE'S TROUBLE. Colorado Springs Officials Complain of Unopened Crossings.

Colorado Springs, May 9.—The residents of the Third ward of this city are up in arms against the Santa Fe railroad. That section of the city is growing rapidly and especially east of the tracks of the railroad. Access to the main portion of the city is had but by two thoroughfares, one Pike's Peak avenue and the other E. Costilla street five blocks further south. The railroad when the line was built through the town promised to open all streets under or cover its tracks as demanded by the city. East Huerta street residents now demand that the street be opened across the tracks, which are at that point in constant use for switching and car storage.

A First Class Train. Take the Union Pacific's new 8:30 a. m. train for Kansas City? Returning, you can leave Kansas City at 4 p. m., reaching Topeka at 6:10 p. m., or you can take the Limited, leaving Kansas City at 7 p. m., which reaches Topeka at 8:30 p. m.

Why Not. Take the Union Pacific's new 8:30 a. m. train for Kansas City? Returning, you can leave Kansas City at 4 p. m., reaching Topeka at 6:10 p. m., or you can take the Limited, leaving Kansas City at 7 p. m., which reaches Topeka at 8:30 p. m.

For everybody—the train that leaves Topeka 7:30 a. m. daily via Santa Fe. A local train running only between Topeka and Kansas City.
